

Raised in a small town in Eastern Ky (Lynch) and graduated from Cumberland High School. Moved to Louisville, KY in 1988 to pursue higher education and graduated from Louisville Technical institute with an associates degree in Computer Aided Design (1989). Enrolled at the University of Louisville and received a B.S. in Engineering in 1995 and MEng in 1997. Held various professional Engineering positions with companies such as the following: Hammond Mfg (Louisville, KY), Jewish Hospital (Louisville, KY), Energizer, EBC (Asheboro, NC), and currently Yum Brands-KFC (Louisville, Ky). Married to Rhonda Jackson and has 2 kids, Morgan & Langston. Has previously served on the board of the KMBC and currently sits on the board of the University of Louisville African American Alumni council. Current active member of Louisville NAACP, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, and First Virginia Ave. Baptist Church.